

QUEENSLAND THEATRE

Queensland Theatre's Legal Chapter proudly supports the Play Commissioning Fund and the development of iconic new Australian work.

The Legal Chapter is a group of legal professionals whose love of language and theatre inspires them to support the essential work of Queensland Theatre's Play Commissioning Fund. The Fund supports playwrights and encourages the development of new, ground-breaking works of theatre that are uniquely Australian. Legal Chapter performances and pre-show functions will take place on Opening Nights in 2018, and include an exclusive invitation to the post-show party. Shows and dates below:

By Nakkiah Lui
Directed by Paige Rattray

A razor sharp rom-com that blends Guess Who's Coming to Dinner with Meet the Fockers.

Two politically powerful families at war. A son and daughter helplessly in love, defying their parents. You've heard this story before – but what if Romeo was white, Juliet was black and the war mainly fought on Twitter?

By William Shakespeare
Directed by Sam Strong

Tim Finn writes new songs for Shakespeare's dark comedy.

A shipwreck sets in motion a wild and whimsical tale of mistaken identities, separated twins, rebellious servants, unrequited love and a pair of ridiculous yellow stockings. After the twelfth night, the land of Illyria will never be the same.

Based on the novel by Craig Silvey
Adapted by Kate Mulvany
Directed by Sam Strong

The smash-hit stage adaptation of the classic Australian coming-of-age mystery.

In the sizzling summer of 1965, bookish 14 year-old Charlie Bucktin lives in a tiny, insignificant bush town where nothing happens. Nothing, that is, until the town's very own Huckleberry Finn – Jasper Jones (Shaka Cook) – stumbles upon a gruesome crime out by the dam. Who else would he call on for help but the sharpest kid around?
