Recommendations

Twelfth Night is one of Shakespeare's most loved comedies. The play follows tales of mistaken identity and love gone wrong, and is an ideal way to introduce students to Shakespeare and the language of Elizabethan Theatre. The inclusion of new songs by Tim Finn, performed live on stage, will engage students and add to their understanding of the work.

Tim Finn writes new songs for Shakespeare's dark comedy

A shipwreck sets in motion a wild and whimsical tale of mistaken identities, separated twins, rebellious servants, unrequited love and a pair of ridiculous yellow stockings. After the twelfth night, the land of Illyria will never be the same.

Hilarious and lovable characters are brought to life by a cast of comedic greats including Jason Klarwein, Christen O'Leary and Jessica Tovey with original music by Tim Finn (Ladies in Black, Split Enz, Crowded House).
