The Queensland Theatre Company team are committed to providing a quality experience that maintains child safety standards and best practice in youth arts and arts in education. We understand the dynamic and sometimes challenging nature of a school environment and want to support you to get the best outcomes from this program. Wherever possible we will accommodate changes and offer guidance on how to engage in the program, however with over 130 schools enrolled there are limitations. If ever in doubt, please don't hesitate to reach out to the team on education@queenslandtheatre.com.au.
